

PureTherm® 1001C

Amber

Typical transmission values for PureTherm 1001C Amber tint are well below the USP standard in the critical 290 - 450 nanometer range as illustrated below. This data was obtained through standard spectrophotometer analysis.